STINGERS KILL MCGILL

Concordia had their best first half of the season February 19, outscoring McGill 57-35. This explosion helped the Stingers to a convincing 94-73 victory. 6'8" Dino Perin (Montreal, P.Q.) continued his outstanding play of late by netting 19 points. Perin is the leading rookie scorer in Quebec with a 13.4 average. He is also 3rd in league rebounding with an average of 8 per game. Rookie Ernie Rosa (Montreal, P.Q.) had his finest offensive performance in over a month, contributing 17 points to the Stinger cause. Co-captain Parnell Joseph (15.7 P.P.G.) had 13 first-half points as the Stingers fast-break was in high gear. All-Canadian candidate Nick Arvanitis had 12 rebounds and remains first in Quebec and 5th in the CIAU in rebounding. Arvanitis, a sophomore Business student from Montreal, has been consistent throughout the season and will be counted on for his strong inside play in the post-season.

STINGERS DEMOLISH U.Q.T.R.

Concordia improved their league record to 11-1-1 with a 13-3 romp over U.Q.T.R. Saturday. Therese Brisson (D.D.O.) led the onslaught with her 44th and 45th goals of the season. Nancy Moore (Pierrefonds, P.Q.) had 2 goals (#12,13) as did Janet Neely (#19,20) and Debbie Gill (#15,16). Single markers went to Christine Beaulieu (#4) Jacqueline Montpetit (#11) Line Mercier (#8), Wendy Harcourt (#5) and France Sabourin (#6).

Brisson leads the league in scoring with 23 goals and 29 assists in 13 games. Nancy Moore is moving up very quickly on the top ten scoring leaders. Moore has 11 goals and 6 assists in 5 league games. Moore is by no means a newcomer to the Q.W.I.H.L. She was 4th in league scoring in 1984-85 while playing for John Abbott College as a 17 year old rookie. That same season Brisson led the league in scoring with 25 points in only 5 games.

The Stingers face Bishop's Wednesday. Saturday's final league game at Laval will be the showdown for first place in the Q.W.I.H.L.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The Concordia Women's Basketball team failed to get a single win in league play this season after losing the last two games of the year this weekend.

Saturday, the Lady Stingers went down 68-56 against their cross-town rivals, the McGill Martlets. Concordia led 32-27 at the half but once again couldn't maintain their lead and came up short by 12 points. Carol Assalian (Montreal, Que.) led the Maroon, Gold and White with 15 points. Carole McIntyre (Pierrefonds, Que.) also contributed largely with 14 points and 13 rebounds. Assalian and McIntyre were both members of Quebec's gold medal winning team at the Canada Winter games last year.

Sunday, Assalian put in another strong effort in scoring 14 points. However, it was not enough for a win. Bishop's defeated Concordia 61-45.

The Stingers, losing their last game in QUAA action, wrapped up their season with an overall record of 0-9.
